THE ARTS ADVOCATE PLEDGE

RAISE YOUR HAND AND REPEAT AFTER ME:

The Arts are my Heart!

Each morning I awaken

fueled by the challenge:

How can I light up a child's life with Art?

Somewhere there is a young person who is hungry for the orange, the red, the brilliant yellow of a paintbrush,

the soothing word of a poet,

the pirouette that soars and saves

and I am committed to fulfilling this need!

There is no shame in my Art game!

I was born this way!!

Everyday I enrich a child's life.

I will not stop until the world is filled with children who have been inspired, and taught by Art.

This is my quest! My guiding star!

The Arts are my Heart and you can't take that away!

"At PACF we are working to ensure that All Kids Thrive, and through my work, I've had the chance to see how YA partners with schools to make arts education accessible to all students. The arts play a vital role in enriching young lives, which is why I proudly will dance for the arts at Dazzle."

TOM SULLIVAN

PRINCETON PARTNERS

"I love Young Audiences because they open eyes, bring joy and inspire thousands of students to embrace the arts and each other. Isn't that what we all need?"

JEANNINE CIMINO

BERKSHIRE BANK
Senior Vice President, Regional

"I work hard to set a good example for my children by making it a priority to give back to my community. I feel very lucky that I was able to take dance lessons throughout my childhood and I am looking forward to putting my dancing shoes back on to support Young Audiences so ALL children can experience the arts."

MEET OUR PROFESSIONAL DANCERS

ILYA ABDULLIN

Ilya is originally from Russia and has been dancing Ballroom and Latin since 1992. He received a degree in dance choreography from the Academy of Culture and Arts in Chelyabinsk. During his career, Ilya has participated in local, national, and international events and competitions. He won many awards and titles as both a member and as captain and choreographer of the champion formation team "Impulse." Ilya moved to the U.S.A. to join Fred Astaire Dance Studio of Princeton's team of instructors in July 2014 and currently competes with his professional partner Tara.

MARIA SHUMAKHER

Maria Shumakher began dancing at the age of 6. After one year of training she knew she was very interested in this new hobby. Today dancing is her lifestyle, her job, her family. What could be better?! Maria has 16 years of experience as a professional competitor and 11 years as a dance teacher for students of different ages in Russia. She has just recently moved to the USA to be an instructor and study American Style with Fred Astaire Dance Studios.

DARYA GIDASPOVA

Darya was born in St. Petersburg, Russia. She began her training with ballet in U.S.A. with the International Ballet Theater Academy and later moved back to her home city to study in one of the premier schools of Classical Ballet in St. Petersburg. She graduated in 2012 and moved back to the US where she found her passion for ballroom dancing. After a long journey of dancing Darya joined the Fred Astaire Princeton Team in 2015. She has participated in many ballets, danced with the St. Petersburg Conservatory of Ballet and Opera, competed in numerous ballet competitions and later Fred Astaire and Independent Ballroom Competitions. She is very excited to be a part of this year's Dazzle event!

JUAN RAMIREZ

Born in Oaxaca, Mexico, Juan immersed himself into the performing arts at a very early age. He started break dancing and hip hop at the age of 8. Since moving to the U.S.A. with his family, Juan has continued his extensive training in music and dance. With a strong background in Latin Social Dancing – Salsa, Bachata, and Zouk – he has also learned to excel in Ballroom, Modern, and Latin Jazz. Juan has been a professional instructor at FADS Princeton since January of 2013 and actively performs and competes both professionally and with his students.

FUND-A-NEED

45TH ANNIVERSARY CAMPAIGN: SCHOLARSHIP FUND

DONATIONS TO THE FUND-A-NEED AUCTION SUPPORT PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN, TEACHERS & FAMILIES IN UNDERSERVED SCHOOLS & COMMUNITIES.

Funds from the Scholarship Fund often provide children with their first live arts experiences. Many of these children have little or no arts in their lives and school days and connecting with a teaching artist can be transformative:

Jayden, a young boy with Down Syndrome, connects with his peers as he shares dance moves learned with teaching artists Hip Hop Fundamentals

Refugee children from Myanmar learn pantomime, enabling them to communicate with classmates for the first time since coming to the US

A teen struggling with depression agrees to counseling after a teaching artist shares a poem about a young man rising above life's challenges

Middle schoolers unite to transform a space into a stunning mural that celebrates their diversity and heritages to become the centerpiece of their new outdoor classroom.

RAISE A PADDLE & MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIFE OF A CHILD

YA 45TH ANNIVERSARY CAMPAIGN

CAPACITY

Help us grow our capacity to serve more children, teachers, and families with outcome-driven arts education programs to reach our ultimate goal of serving every child every year.

ENDOWMENT

CAPACITY GOAL:

PROGRAMMING

SCHOLARSHIP:

$155,000

Contributions directly subsidize programs that serve children in underserved schools and communities.
